The Study Aids package contains a number of useful resources for students and instructors. Instructors who find the resources below helpful and would like to contribute to these resources can contact EdTech. We will gladly work with instructors to expand these resources.

STUDY AIDS

Contains the following information:

- [Content] Disability Support Services
  - If you have a documented disability and anticipate needing accommodations in this course, you are strongly encouraged to contact Disability Support Services, so that appropriate and reasonable accommodating services can be determined and recommended.

- [Web Link] S&T Students – Useful quick links for students

- [Folder] Self-Assessments
  - [Web Link] Learning Style Questionnaire – Discover your preferred learning style.
  - [Web Link] Brain Hemispheric Dominance – Which side of your brain is more dominant? Right or left?
  - [Web Link] Student Online Readiness Self-Assessment – Are you prepared to become an online student?

- [Web Link] How to Study

- [Web Link] Study Guides and Strategies

- [Web Link] Create Your Own Study Flashcards

Instructions for downloading and installing the Study Aids package can be found at:

http://edtech.mst.edu/support/blackboard9-1/packagedownload/
After the package has been uploaded into the course, the course menu should look something like the following (actual course menu will vary based on how much the instructor has modified the menu from the default).

Clicking on the Study Aids button will take you to the Study Aids content area, which will look like this:

![Study Aids content area screenshot]

If you have a documented disability and anticipate needing accommodations in this course, you are strongly encouraged to contact Disability Support Services, so that appropriate and reasonable accommodating services can be determined and recommended.